

Jennifer Thomas is a busy college student who gets distracted easily by her phone.

She can never seem to stop scrolling through endless social media posts and tik toks.

She knows that she needs more time dedicated to studying so she has downloaded the Social Media limiter app

By staying off of social media her grades have begun to improve and she now has more free time

The Social media app has completely changed Jennifer's studying habits and improved her productivity.

Thanks to the Social Media limiter Jennifer can now have time to study and relax.
